Policy:

St. Joseph Academy is committed to providing an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment. It is SJA's policy that everyone has a right to work in an environment free of discrimination and harassment based on sex, age, race, national origin, religion, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, or any other basis protected by state or federal law. SJA prohibits harassment in any form – by supervisors, co-workers, students, families or vendors.

Harassment or intimidation by employees, supervisors, co-workers, and non-employees is not in harmony with the type of working atmosphere that we strive to develop and maintain at St. Joseph Academy. Harassment is any verbal or physical conduct designed to threaten, intimidate or coerce an individual that, in the individual's opinion, is severe or pervasive. Therefore, any harassing or intimidating conduct, including sexual harassment, or any other conduct that interferes with an individual's ability to perform their duties by creating a hostile environment is strongly prohibited.

If you feel you have been discriminated against or harassed in any way, it is generally best to tell that person that you find such behavior offensive, that such behavior is against company policy, and that you want him or her to immediately stop. However, if you are uncomfortable taking this action, or if the conduct does not stop after you have warned the offending person, you should immediately contact your supervisor. If you feel you cannot seek help from your supervisor, then you should contact his or her supervisor, Human Resources or any other management personnel.

Every complaint will be investigated as promptly, thoroughly, and impartially as possible. We will protect the confidentiality of complaints to the fullest extent possible. If the investigation determines that discrimination or harassment has occurred, SJA will take immediate and appropriate action, up to and including termination.

SJA will not retaliate against any individual for complaining about discrimination or harassment. If you feel you have been retaliated against, follow the complaint procedure above. Any individual who engages in retaliation against another, because of a complaint under this policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

SJA will ensure that management take positive steps to comply with this policy. Management is required to be aware of potential discrimination situations, quickly resolve any discrimination issues that arise, and refrain from retaliation or harassment against any individual involved in the filing, investigation, or resolution of a discrimination claim.

All individuals are required to cooperate fully with the investigation and resolution of all discrimination and harassment complaints.
